As Director of Parish Stewardship and Leadership Formation for the Archdiocese of St. Louis, Dave Baranowski has worked directly with 158 of the 178 parishes within the archdiocese on personal and parish stewardship formation. He is a regular presenter at the annual ICSC Conference and is invited to speak at parishes and dioceses across the country. Prior to working for the archdiocese, Dave had a 29-year career with Anheuser-Busch, marketing the “King of Beers,” and now he hopes to spend the rest of his life working for the “King of Kings”!

Hosted by the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston Stewardship Advisory Council
