“For we are God’s co-workers; you are God’s field, God’s building.” 1 Cor 3:9

Happy 60th Anniversary, Second Vatican Council!

We are grateful for all those who gathered at the Vatican in 1962 to engage in spirited conversations about our Church’s future, with emphasis on the call of the laity. From the Pastoral Letter on Stewardship, “Stewardship A Disciple’s Response “ we learn from the section: “Stewards of the Church”

Stewards of God’s gifts are not passive beneficiaries. We cooperate with God in our own redemption and in the redemption of others. We are obliged to be stewards of the church collaborators and cooperators in continuing the redemptive work of Jesus Christ, which is the Church’s essential mission. This mission—proclaiming and teaching, serving and sanctifying— is our task. It is the personal responsibility of each one of us as stewards of the Church.

All members of the Church have their own roles to play in carrying out the mission.

- Parents, who nurture their children in the light of faith;
- Parishioners, who work in concrete ways to make their parishes true communities of faith and vibrant sources of service to the larger community;
- All Catholics, who give generous support—time, money, prayers, and personal service according to their circumstances — to parish and diocesan programs and to the universal Church.

ICSC Conference, in Anaheim, Ca, Oct 2nd to the 5th. Still time to take advantage of early registration. See: <https://catholicstewardship.com/> (more information contact Tony Oltamarie, St Laurence)
