STEWARDSHIP EVENT: OCT 2-5;

60th Annual, International Catholic Stewardship Conference, Anaheim Ca.

The Mission of the International Catholic Stewardship Council is to foster an environment in which stewardship is understood, accepted and practiced throughout the Catholic Church. Its primary concern continues to be to promote a biblical concept of Christian stewardship in which generosity of time, talent, and treasure are construed as God-given gifts”*

Many questions arise about this conference, one being “is it really worth it to spend the money to go”?

YES, YES, YES, it is an investment in the future of your parish and in the education of your parishioners. As we live through the after affects of the pandemic, you will have the opportunity to learn how to help reinvigorate your parish/and or school and re-imagine our Church in the coming years.

There are many educational workshops, speakers and the latest information on the best forms of parish communications. This year 2022 will be the ICSC 60th annual conference, which should say something about the gifts and blessings derived from this gathering! Coni Perez

The Pillars of Christian Stewardship: Time, Talent and Treasure. Prayer is included in the first pillar of Time. Our prayer life should include personal prayer, prayers at Mass and family prayer. Being God’s steward and teaching our families to be responsible for good stewardship begins in the home. We know that our young children learn and understand from our teachings just as we learned from others. It is difficult to find time to pray or sometimes to learn how to pray. We may have to schedule time for prayer just as we schedule other activities for our days.

An easy family prayer time can be to teach our children to pray the rosary as a weekly commitment. Praying the rosary is a Catholic thing! It helps us to slow down, makes prayer important, helps us to learn scripture and most importantly helps build family time together.

Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Ph 4:6
